Our Syrian Family
There was a small reception-luncheon in Cobourg for the local and area Syrian families who have arrived to meet MP Kim Rudd last Thursday. Along with many other groups, we of the Refugee Committee had written a letter to the Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, the Minister of Immigration and Kim Rudd our local MP over the concerns for Raid’s family who have still not arrived even though there son has been here over a month, encouraging the government to reunite them. At the luncheon, Kim Rudd made the announcement that Immigration Minister John McCallum is lifting restrictions on privately sponsored Syrian refugees. We had the opportunity to speak with Kim Rudd and make our personal appeal as we introduced Raid to her. After March 1st passed, when the government reached its goal of 25,000 Syrian refugees, they quietly called back all the immigration personnel and the planes. With this new encouraging news, we hope that Raid’s family will arrive very soon.

World Day of Prayers for Vocations
April 17

On the Fourth Sunday of Easter, Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God’s call and to pray for vocations. Christ the Good Shepherd continues to lead his people through his Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, and calls many to follow him in this way. Priestly, diaconal, and religious vocations should be a constant concern in the hearts of God’s people throughout the year.

NEXT SUNDAY, YOUR ASSISTANCE IS APPRECIATED:

In honour of this day, which in 1963 was named the World Day of Prayer for Vocations by Pope Paul VI, we ask for your prayers. Next weekend, April 16/17 you will find at the back of the church a basket of cards; each card has the name of a priest, deacon, or sister in our diocese. Please take one name and keep this person in your prayers over the next year. Thank you!

Thank you to all who made the Divine Mercy Sunday celebration last Sunday such a wonderful event. Your participation is also greatly appreciated.
